ARRIVAL Mr. Levi Klauser of the reston county Journal is in town.

WORKMEN have commenced put-ting up the iron front of the building now in course of erection by Geo. R. Taylor, Esq.

Our enterprising young friend, W. G. Battelle, of the firm of Booth, Battelle & Co., has returned to the city looking well and hearty, THE TRIBE WARD PUBLIC SCHOOL has recently been altered in appearance by the substitution of a sloping roof for the flat one, which it originally

The alleys in the square, bounded by Eoff and Chapline, and Second and Third streets, are in a bad condition. We commend them to the attention of the health officer.

LOOK WELL TO YOUR BUCKETS AND TURN.—All concerned are notified that the Basin will be cleansed on Monday, the lith inst. There will consequently be no water supplied to the city on that day.

A rountow of the old supply-pipe having been necessarily taken up by the workmen engaged in laying the new 20-inch pipes, some of the citizens are deprived of their usual supply of water, and will so continue until the new arrangement is completed.

ADVANTAGE is being taken of the owwater to fill ap and pave the lower portion of the wharf. This will be a valuable improvement, and will add greatly to the facilities of steamboutnen and others doing business with them.

A woman was taken suddenly ill yes-terday morning under one of the trees on the southern side of the Island abut-ment of the "bridge." A sympathising crowd soon collected, eager to render sistance. It came finally in the shape of cholera medicine. Cause of sick-ness too many "cucumbers."

THE STRANGE ZANGSVILLE, hereto coat in her place for the conveyance freight for the Central Ohio railroad.

WE were pleased to see the young and entiemanty clerk of the steamer Potome in town yesterday. The river beg too low, steamboatmen generally re having a good lime. They can not not a better place than our city and a bester place than our city and se country adjacent to enjoy them-

The two central figures, on the further side of the bed, are Speak Colfax and Postmaster-General Denn Colfax and Postmaster-General Denmi-son; further along is the face of Major John Hay, the President's private sec-retary; then comes the classic profile of that atout battler for human rights Charles Sumner; the faces of General Halleck, General Augur, General Meigs, Secretary Stanton, and others Surgeon-General Barnes sits close to Mr. Lincoln, at the head of the bed and byshim stands Rev. Dr. Gurley, On the walls of the room are hung the "Village Blacksmith" and Rosa Bon-heur's "Horse Fair."

In the walls of the room are hung the Village Blacksmith" and Rosa Bon-neur's "Horse Fair."

Altogether the picture presents the inest of cosp d'ecils, embracing the aces and figures of some of the most listinguished men our country has pro-luced, and should be possessed by all who revere the memory of the simple searted patriot, clear headed, asgacious fatesman, whose death-bed it com-pendents.

An individual, walking in the upp part of the city on Monday eveni about 9 o'clock, heard uncould soun about 9 o'clock, heard uncouth sounds proceeding from a respectable looking frame house on Main sirest. These sounds putqueer ideas into his head, for he at once fancied himself the "weater of a star" on duty. Laboring under this remarkable delusson, he proceeded to the rear of the house, and endeavored to affect an entrance. He was for a while unsuccessful, the inmates giving no sign of bearing his continued thumps. Finally the door yielded to his entreaties, and he walked in arrayed, as he fancied, in all the severe majesty of the hiw. How cruelity he was awakened from his dream, an individual of the male persuasion was there before him. He was a well-An individual of the male persussion was there before him. He was a dweller in the house; his castle had been invaled; he pitched into our sommambulist and used him up.

At twelve o'clock, the same night, the individual took the road for Haneytown, there to recover the beauty of which he had been despoiled.

THEATRE.—We regret to see that Mr. Raymond's Giff Enterprise is not as successful as it deserves to be. Hereofore entertainments of a similar character have been wont to fill Washington Hall to overflowing. Yet now there a presented nightly an attractive performance, and, in addition, the chances of receiving a valuable giff, and the clouse is not half filled. As to the mode of distributing the ifts, we are assured by disinterested arties that it is the fairest way possible at can be selected.

The list of gifts for to-night is attracted we. There will also be excellen aya, in both of which the favorite will appear.

The proposed "Complimentary Benefit" to Miss M. E. Gordon, mentioned by us as on foot, has now assumed a proper shape, and will positively take place on Friday evening next. Om young men have "taken the affair in hand, and we shall look for a large turn out. "So mote it be."

RIVER NEWS.—Two feet eight inches water in the channel and falling.

The Julia, No. 2, left yesterday for Parkersburg at 11 a.m.; the Rattler, for Sunfish, at 3 p. m., and Capt. Anderson's flat boat, for Bellair, (in place of Leelie Combe) in time for the train West on the Central Ohio Railroad.

The boats leaving to-day are, the Rattler, for Sunfish, at 3 p. m., and Capt. Anderson's flat boat, in time for the train on the C. O. R. R.

The New State on her last trip down broke her rudder and was delayed in consequence. She will probably not reach the wharf until after the usual time, and will depart at a later hour than usual.

What with the leading of the Lelie ime, and will depart at a later nour han usual.

What with the loading of the Julia, No. 2, the Rattler, Anderson's flat boat, and the filling up and paving of the lower portion of it, business on the wharf yesterday was quite brisk for this season of the year.

Tionr Rope Ascession.—Last evening, at the time appointed, M. Denier gave another of those wonderful "ascensions," for which he is so famous, to an immense crowd of people.

Walking across the rope in a sack, and trunding a wheel-barrow over it, are fests that require a great deal of nerve and practice to accomplish successfully, but we are inclined to think M. Denier's performance on the trapeze carry of the palm.

He will give another, and positively the last, "ascension" this evening at older-lock. THE WOODS FAIR POR SAIR We call attention to the advertisement in another column of valuable land and coal for sale," by Issae Irwin, Fad., Real Estato Agent, No. 22 Monroe area. This is the Woods farm, situated between the city and Gier's Run, and is certainly as well adapted for a country residence, or for manufacturing purposes, as any locality in the vicinity of wheeling. There is to be constructed a road from the upper and of the city to Gien's Run, which will add materially the desirability of the location.
